The Greenstone Economic Development Corporation (GEDC) held their Annual General Meeting (AGM) this past June 6th at the Centre culturel francophone de Geraldton. The staff, Board of Directors, GEDC members and several guests were in attendance to hear about the GEDC's activities and operations for 2024. Some GEDC events included were the Small Business Week Lunch 'n' Learn series, the 3rd female entrepreneurship event, Fearless & Flawless, as well as the first set of youth entrepreneurship workshops, Kid-Preneur. More details about the events and 2024 operations can be found in the GEDC's Annual Report. Interested parties can pick up a hardcopy at the business centre or find the report online at www.gedc.ca in the 'About Us' section.

During the AGM, the Board of Directors and Executive positions were also announced. The GEDC staff and members would like to thank the volunteer Board of Directors for their continued commitment to the corporation, communities, and First Nations in the GEDC service area. The GEDC would also like to take this time to acknowledge the financial contribution and support of the Federal Economic Development Agency for Northern Ontario (FedNor), its President Valerie Gideon, former Northwest Program Manager Brent Lundy, Initiatives Officer Greg Desimone and the Honourable Patty Hajdu, Minister of Jobs and Families and Minister responsible for FedNor. We would also like to thank Mandy Cargnelutti for the delicious catering enjoyed by all who attended.
