

HISTORICAL REFERENCES

DATE	EVENT	REFERENCE
1670	HBC was given a royal charter and a trading monopoly in the Hudson Bay watershed.	Bray, Matt and Epp, Ernie, A Vast and Magnificent Land , p.32
1678	A fort was built at the entrance of Lake Nipigon.	Innis, Harold A., The Fur Trade in Canada , p.49
1679	A get together between Chesnaye and Radisson triggered the formation of la Compagnie du Nord as New France's thorny challenge to HBC.	Newman, Peter C., Company of Adventures , Penguin Books, Markham, Ontario, 1985, vol 1, p. 146
1680	Fur traders had apparently crossed the height of land at this point to trade with the Indians.	Innis, Harold A., The Fur Trade in Canada , p.49
1682	Founding of la Compagnie du Nord (led by Charles Aubert de la Chesnaye).	Newman, Peter C., Company of Adventures , Penguin Books, Markham, Ontario, 1985, vol 1, p. 146
		Miquelon, Dale, "Compagnie du Nord", Encyclopedia of Canada , vol x, p.477
		Innis, Harold A., The Fur Trade in Canada , p.50
		Vacon, Andre, Reves d'empire: le Canada avant 1700
	The Company dispatched Radisson and Chouart to stabilize Indian alliances.	Miquelon, Dale, "Compagnie du Nord", Encyclopedia of Canada , vol x, p.477

1684

Jean Pere, merchant from La Rochelle pushed on as far as^s Hudson Bay, a stream on the Albany River was then named after him.

Lamontagne, Leopold, "Pere, Jean", Encyclopedia of Canada

Fort La Toruette at the mouth of the Ombabika in the North of Lake Nipigon was built.

Innis, Harold A., The Fur Trade in Canada, p.49

Radisson deserts la Compagnie du Nord to join the HBC.

Newman, Peter C., Company of Adventures, vol 1

1685

Monopoly of the Hudson Bay Fur Trade granted to la Compagnie du Nord by King Louis XIV.

Miquelon, Dale, "Compagnie du Nord", Encyclopedia of Canada

Fort de Français was built near the forks of the Kenogami and the Albany.

Innis, Harold A., The Fur Trade in Canada, p.49

Memories of the member of la Compagnie du Nord addressed to the minister Seignelay, Paris.

Vachon, Andre, Reves d'empire: le Canada avant 1700

1686

March 20, Pierre de Troyes and Lemoyne d'Iberville led a force of French troops and militia from Montreal to James Bay.

Newman, Peter C., Company of Adventures, vol 1

June 20, the French take over Moose Factory.

Marsh, James "Troyes, Pierre de", Encyclopedia of Canada

July 3, the French occupied Rupert House.

July 26, the French took over Fort Albany with the English ship "Craven".

1696

Medard Chouard passes away at Trois Rivieres.

Newman, Peter C., Company of Adventures, vol 1

- 1700 La Compagnie du Nord goes bankrupt due to large military expenses. Miquelon, Dale, "Compagnie du Nord", Encyclopedia of Canada
- 1717 Lake Superior posts were re-established under the label of Les Postes du Nord. HBC officers once again began to report the activities of the "interloping" coureurs des bois. Bray, Matt and Epp, Ernie, A Vast and Magnificent Land, p.32
- 1720 Henley Post was first established. Switzer, ALK, The Longlac Story
- 1741 "Erection of the Henley House to prevent encroachment of the French Traders." Voorhis, E., Historic Forts and Trading Posts of the French Regime and the English Fur Trading Companies.
- 1759 A French fort existed with 20 miles of Fort Albany which was later abandoned. HBC erected a block house at the two branches of the river. In operation this year. Voorhis, E., Historic Forts and Trading Posts of the French Regime and the English Fur Trading Companies.